CROWD JAMS DESPERADO'S FUNERAL

YOUNG HUSBAND OF WOMAN TAKEN FOR RIDE FENCES EFFORTS TO LINK HIM WITH THE CRIME

Police today are continuing a relentless grilling of Edward Fred McMillan, 28, young husband of Mrs. Cora McMillan, 42, 2452 Martindale avenue, whose badly battered body was found Tuesday morning in the driveway of a home on the lonely muddy road that leads to Eagle Creek.

McMillan was held when he went to police headquarters several hours after the finding of his wife's body to report her whereabouts unknown. Investigation of him followed, detectives say, when he failed to explain certain inconsistencies in his statements regarding his wife and himself.

The body of Mrs. McMillan was discovered lying on its back in a blanket of snow about nine a. m. by two pedestrians, Richard Epps, 20, R. R. 18 and James Burden, R. R. 18. Deputy Coroner E. R. Wilson said death was caused by injuries to the head and breast. Three deep wounds that fractured the skull were found about the head. Another wound that penetrated the chest was found on the left breast. The woman had been dead, Dr. Wilson said from eight to ten hours, when found.

Former Resident Of City Buried Here

MRS. BELLE FLEMING THOMAS

Believed Killed By A Crow-Bar
According to the two men who discovered the body there were no tracks in the snow to indicate a struggle. Distinct footprints of a man's shoe, however, were noticeable in the blood-soaked snow beside the body. Bits of the woman's hair and splashes of blood were found in several places three to eight feet from the body. Deputy Coroner Wilson sent the body to the City morgue where he performed an autopsy. He said he believed the wounds had been inflicted by a crow-bar.

Investigators first advanced the theory that the woman had been struck by an automobile. Trend of the investigation changed, however, with the appearance of McMillan. Police are endeavoring to learn from him how certain blood spots came to be found on his car, although police were told that the car, a Ford coupe belonging to the couple, had been washed at a local garage early Tuesday morning. McMillan, it was said, denied having seen his wife Monday night.

According to Mrs. Alex McCulley, with whom the murdered woman and her husband lived, Mrs. McMillan on Monday told the woman for whom she works as cook and house-maid, that her husband was going to drive her out to the home of her cousin on the Eagle Creek road that night to look after some pigs her cousin was raising for her. According to her employer, she had expressed herself as "feeling funny, and I'd rather not go."

Bank Books Missing
The woman, highly regarded by her friends for her industry and thrift, carried insurance policies to the amount of three or four thousands of dollars. McMillan is beneficiary in all cases. It is believed that she also had a substantial bank account, though her deposit books could not be found, her sisters said.

Funeral services will be held for her Friday morning at St. Rites' Catholic church, 19th and Arsenal avenue.

Mrs. McMillan was born and reared in Plainfield and came here about fifteen years ago. About a year ago, she married Mr. McMillan. Both were employed in domestic service. Mrs. McMillan was owner of the home at 2452 Martindale avenue where she roomed with her step-father, Alex McCulley.

LOSES OFFICER'S BENEFITS
GARY, March 20. (Special To The Recorder)—Mrs. John Bolden, widow of the city's late colored detective, has been denied benefits from the police pension fund because Bolden failed to take an examination required and failed to keep up his dues.

AN OPEN LETTER TO:

Charles (Buck) Sumner, Judge John Kern, Walter Pritchard, George Denny and Louis R. Markum, Aspirants for the Office of Mayor of Indianapolis.

One among you will in all probability be chosen by the people of this city as their next chief executive. The man on whom the electorate bestows this honor will be called upon to administer the affairs of the city in the interest of all the people.

Determination of many questions vital to the citizens of the community will be placed squarely in his hands, and we do not believe it unfair if aspirants to the mayor's office state their positions on those questions.

One large group of citizens who form an important part of the city's population is definitely set apart from the rest. This fact is no fault of theirs' and no fault of yours. But the fact remains, nevertheless.

This group is seriously confronted with certain health problems that demand immediate consideration. These problems are made acute because of a deplorable lack of adequate hospital facilities, which means in turn, little or no opportunities for adequate training of those of that group engaged in the field of medical service.

The city of Indianapolis maintains a hospital for treatment of patients whose incomes do not permit attendance at private institution. Colored as well as white citizens are taxed for maintenance of the City hospital.

It is a common knowledge that colored physicians and surgeons suffer from lack of adequate clinical experience such as can be gained in a modern well-regulated hospital.

There is not a single institution in this city where a colored medical student can serve an internship. There is also no training school for colored nurses.

If any one of you is elected to the high office of mayor of Indianapolis will you, through the board of public health which it will be your duty to appoint, and which control city hospital affairs, secure the appointments of colored physicians and surgeons, internes, and nurses to the staffs of the hospital?

Will you make your stand on this question known to the public at once, before you seek support of colored voters in your efforts to secure nomination and election to the office of mayor?

—The Editor, The Indianapolis Recorder.

REV. HIGHBAUGH CHOSEN PASTOR OF SAMARITAN

Rev. J. T. Highbaugh, widely known ecclesiastic and Bible scholar, and for the past eleven years pastor of the South Calvary Baptist church, has accepted the pastorate of the Samaritan Baptist church, officials of the latter church disclosed this week.

The new pastor will assume control of the church's affairs, Sunday March 25 for which occasion special morning and evening services have been arranged. Negotiations with the aim of securing the services of Rev. Highbaugh were under way for some time, the trustees of the church intimated.

Both officials and members of the church expressed themselves as highly pleased with the selection, and acceptance of Rev. Highbaugh. The Samaritan church was organized about five years ago. Rev. Highbaugh's predecessor, Rev. Virgil Davis, completed several years as pastor six months ago. Its position in the community has risen during its short existence to one of commanding importance.

Rev. Highbaugh was educated at Simmons university, Louisville, Ky. Butler university and Moody Bible Institute. For nearly twenty years he has been active in the religious and civic life of the city and state.

Voters, Awakening From Lethargy, Change Fears To Hopes Of Heavy Registration

Fears felt by leading citizens that many colored voters would lose their right to vote in the coming primary through failure to register, have faded into roseate dreams of a record-breaking exercise of the right to franchise by local citizens.

Cursory examination of the rapidly expanding returns being brought in by precinct officials and received at the court house reveal a belated but well sustained crescendo of registration of eligible voters. Voters are apparently awakening to the necessity of the largest exercise of the important civic duty: many assert.

Work of the precinct registration officials has been completed in some instances. In others the workers will continue their efforts until March 25, the last day for opportunity for home registration. Thereafter until April, voters must present themselves at Room 34 in the court house.

Warnings are again issued by Glenn Ralston, county clerk that affidavits are invalid unless signed by the voter in the presence of the official. Penalties are provided by law for forgeries. Each must sign or himself or herself.

Colored citizens are being told that a protection of their welfare demands that they turn in as near 100 per cent registration as possible. Many applicants for jobs in the future will advance themselves if they are able to present registra-

BODY OF YOUNGBLOOD; SLAIN

DILLINGER PAL-RETURNED TO FAMILY AND BURIED IN GARY

GARY, Ind., March 21 (Special To The Recorder)—Herbert Youngblood, 29 year old "bad man" from Gary, who was slain in a gun battle with deputy sheriffs at Port Huron, Michigan, last Saturday when they sought to apprehend him for escape with John Dillinger from the Crown Point jail several weeks ago, was buried here yesterday.

Many people sought to get one last glimpse of the Negro killer who was slain as Gary police who knew him predicted he would. "With his boots on."

Many others wished to see the last mortal remains of a young man who began life as a highly respected Sunday school teacher at First Baptist church, Twenty-first and Washington streets.

Youngblood was first sentenced to prison for forgery of some securities in 1928. Since his return here from federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, he became involved in a series of fights and cutting scrapes which gained for him a reputation as a dangerous criminal.

At the time of his death at Port Huron, his body was literally covered with scars which were revealed after suit he had used to cover them had been removed. It is the common belief here that the murder of the Italian merchant Piazza in a Broadway garage last August was not committed by Youngblood, but was the work of the underworld. He was being held in the Crown Point jail when he made a sensational escape from the jail with America's public enemy No. 1, John Dillinger.

VICTORY LIFE REGAINING CONFIDENCE

CHICAGO, March 17.—(ANP)—The first annual meeting of the board of directors of the new Victory Mutual Insurance company was held at the home office building of the company at 56th and State street here this week. The meeting was attended by fifteen directors who heard reports on the progress made toward rehabilitating the business of the old Victory Life Insurance company and the development of the new institution which has been virtualized and is owned by the policy holders. The report, it is claimed warrants the belief that the company is on the threshold of unprecedented prosperity.

Dr. P. M. H. Savory, chairman of the board, presented the report for the company. Dr. Savory said:

"We present for your consideration our work for the little more than 6 months operation, up to December 31, 1933. During this period we issued $350,250 in new insurance, which, together with the re-insured business, makes a total of $6,911,863, representing 7,422 policies. Our premium income for the same period was $75,746.49, not including deposits on applications, which are subject to refund. Interest on mortgages, bonds, loans, policy loans, rents, etc., total $24,847. The total income from premiums, interest, rents, etc., was $102,594. Our surplus is $46,500. Our assets total $648,237."

GUARDIAN ANGEL

MRS. EUGENE MIKELL, JR.

Mary Roberts Rinehart's advice to budding female genius to forsake an early career in favor of conjugal happiness is being followed, apparently, by the wistfully attractive Mrs. Mikell, who before her marriage some months ago was Miss Marmetta Newton of Pittsburgh. She was well known in theatrical circles in the East, and gave glowing promise of a brilliant career.

She is now successfully playing the role of "Guardian Angel" to her husband, a well-known and talented musician.

FLANNER HOUSE TO OBSERVE 36 ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDERS DAY

Flanner House, one of the city's most invaluable social institutions will observe Founder's Day, Wednesday, April 4. Dr. J. G. Benson, superintendent of the Methodist hospital will be the principal speaker. Dr. C. H. Winders is president of the board of trustees and Rev. Henry L. Herod is superintendent of the institution. The dinner program will be held at the Phyllis Wheatley Y. W. C. A.

The institution was founded in 1898 by Miss Mary Colton Smith, Charles S. Grout and Frank W. Flanner, who donated its first site on Colton street. It began its existence large as a recreational center for young colored folk but in 1903 was incorporated for the purpose of promoting the social, moral and physical welfare of Negroes, and of establishing and maintaining industrial and other lines of education among the people. The Christian Woman's Board of Missions took over control of the institution in 1913 and in 1918 removed it to its present location at West and St. Clair streets.

At that time it became one of the charter members of the Indianapolis Community Fund and has since received the major share of the costs of operation from that fund. Flanner house is not a relief giving agency, but seeks through its several departments to help the individuals to help themselves. It maintains a large employment bureau in which scientific methods are used in the selection and placing of workers. A well equipped laundry affords women an opportunity to study under competent instruction modern laundry methods.

Important among the Flanner House departments for community service is the maintenance of a clinic and child welfare department. Opportunities of self-help are given needy women in the make-over shop, where many useful articles of wearing apparel are salvaged from discarded clothing usually regarded as trash. Incidentally many of the women in making something out of nothing never fails to impress observers as "amazing."

NEW YORK CITY, Mar. 20.—(CNS)—Bishop Charles Manuel Grace, founder and head of the House of Prayer for all People, and charged with violating the Mann Act was convicted and will be sentenced this week.

Dr. Mary Waring Addresses Club Women at Ft. Wayne

PORT WAYNE, Ind., March 19.—(ANP)—Dr. Mary F. Waring, president of the National Association of Colored Women, was the principal speaker at a Forum held at Turner Chapel A. M. E. Church here Sunday by the club women of Port Wayne. Dr. Waring gave a stirring address upon the need for organization among colored women. She was the honoree at a reception given immediately after the Forum, later being guest at a dinner of a group of club women headed by Mrs. Marjorie Wickliffe, president of the local City Federation of Women's Clubs.

RITE HELD FOR POLICE OFFICER CHARLES CARTER

Glowing tributes befitting a worthy member of the Indianapolis police Department were paid Charles (Pete) Carter at funeral services held Monday at the John A. Patton Funeral Home. Rev. Robert E. Skelton, assisted by Rev. McKnight, officiated.

Resolutions were read for the police department by Officer, Norville Bennett, and for the Policemen and Firemen's wives association by Mrs. George Sneed. Solos were sung by Mrs. Starks and Hayes Wilson.

Chief of Police Michael Morrissey, Chief of Detectives Fred Simons, and Capt. Rademacher headed the large escort of police officers who attended the funeral. Lieut. Roy Howard and firemen from Fire station No. 1, represented the Fire Department. Pallbearers were Officers Hopson, Jones, Bennett, Heaton, Grandison and Kennedy.

Survivors are: two brothers, William and Edward Carter, Chicago. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery. Carter died Thursday last week at the City hospital from an attack of pneumonia he suffered Tuesday. Friends say he told them at the time he had suffered a cold following a tramp through the slushy streets of Baltimore, Md., a few days earlier where he had gone to testify before a federal grand jury.

OMEGAS SAY THIRD TIME IS THE CHARM AS JUBILANT KAPPAS GET UNIFORMS OUT FOR "Q.C." SCALP

Both Teams Confident of Victory in Third Game; Many New Faces May Appear in Both Lineups; Overflow Crowd Expected

Basketball will release its grip on Indiana April 6th when the gun announces the winner of the Kappa Alpha Psi-Omega Psi Phi game at Crispus Attucks high school, and for another year one of the two fraternities will reign supreme.

Already the Kappas are giving their team and crimson uniforms an airing, since they have been in mothballs all year. The fact is that the Kappas are running down to Cincinnati to tackle the highly touted Alphas on the 23rd.

"Bobby" DeFranz, the Kappa mascot, announced that he will be ready to lead the gang out on the floor as he has not outgrown his uniform, yet, but the question is "what Kappas will be led out on the floor by young DeFranz?"

It is a foregone conclusion that both teams will send into action the greatest basketball stars in the middle-west and that both organizations boast of victory.

Everyone recalls the battle that Big Jack Mann of the Kappas gave Dave DeJernett of the Omegas, and how Fitz Lyons and Van Jenkins teamed to keep Dog Clark, Lucas, Payne, and the rest of the Omegas on the run. Then "All American" McPherson and Ed Richey put on a fancy bit of showmanship to give the five hundred fans their money's worth for the evening.

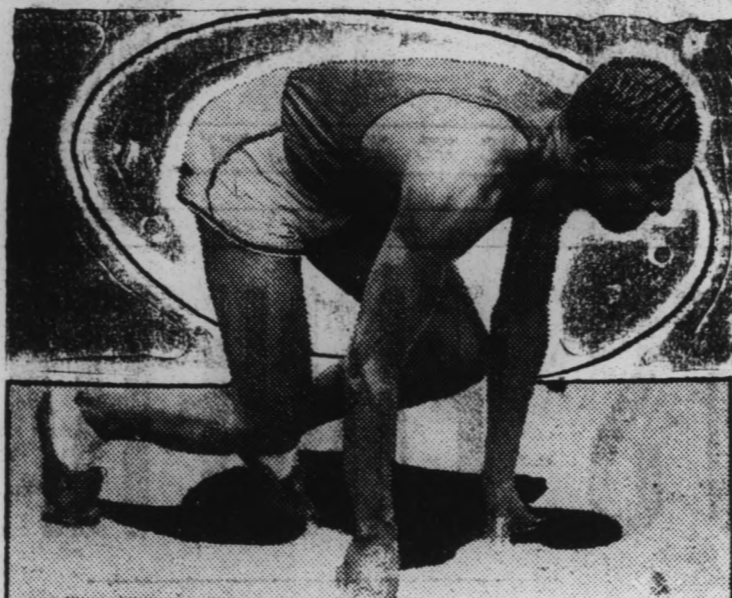

Now the largest crowd in the history of the annual game is expected to witness the clash since both teams hold a victory and the game this year will give one or the other an advantage in the standings.

They say that some relief as a trophy will come to the fore to make the fight more bitter, the victory sweeter, and the victor will get the spoils. As we go to press, the best we can guess is that the game may end in a draw because the odds look just as good on both sides.

Tickets went on sale at The Indianapolis Recorder, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Walker Drug Store, Bruce Pharmacy at 16th and Martindale, 21st and Boulevard Place, and 25th and Northwestern. A dance will follow the game in the Walker Casino.

Since many students will be at home during Spring vacation, a real collegiate atmosphere will envelop the hundreds of followers of this sport.

National Prep Tourney To Get Started In Gary Thursday, March 29th

(By "JAKE" PEARSON)
GARY, Ind., March 24.—Plans for the promotion of the National Inter-scholastic Basketball Tournament here March 29th, 30th, 31st, are rapidly nearing completion according to a report from Coach John D. Smith, Tournament director this week. Eleven official entry blanks have already been filed, leaving a total of five yet to enter.

Gary athlete. Official activities will get under way Thursday afternoon of next week with a big Parade through Gary's business district prying off the lid. M. a huge water carnival will be staged in the Roosevelt Swimming pool. At 10:30 P. M. an inaugural ball in the Roosevelt gym will conclude Thursday's program.

Saturday morning the eight semi-finalists will fight it out, while in morning and afternoon, the losers of the first and semi-final rounds will clash in the consolation rounds on the Roosevelt hardwood. Back to the Memorial Auditorium in the evening the two finalists of the tournament proper will clash in the final game for the National Cage title. The preliminary game, which will bring together the two consolation finalists, is carded for 7:15 P. M. A big victory will bring to an end the Roosevelt High School First Annual Inter-scholastic Basketball Tournament.

WILLIS WARD

NATION TURNS 'LIGHT ON JACKSON WARD, AND METCALF IN ANNUAL BUTLER RELAYS' MARCH 24TH

Record Breaking Performances May Feature Running of Great Indoor Sport; Indiana May Lose Team Titles

Human whippets will toe the starting marks tonight in the Butler University Fieldhouse some seeking their first Relays titles, others defending titles, and those eliminated in the early round trials will be rooting for some favorite to carry on.

Ralph Metcalfe, the "Marquette Bullet" and Willis Ward, Michigan's "Iron Man", and Alva Jackson, "Michigan State's Flash" will be the greatest individual entrants in the meet, each will be entered in more than one event seeking to dethrone Indiana University's defending team champion.

To equal the performances of these great athletes, it takes muscles of iron and nerves of steel. When a man like Ward or Jackson plays through a strenuous season of football, then done the thin lies and spikes turning in unusual performances, we sit back and admire him for it. It so happened that both of these men play dead on their respective teams, only Jackson did not play regular because of a weak ankle. Metcalfe is kept in training the year around on the cinder track in the Marquette gym, and when the indoor season opens is competing in various dashes every week. Competition will be keener this year than ever since some of the nation's greatest athletes will seek to establish new marks, and new stars coming to the force. Coach Phillips announced that nearly two hundred teams were entered each bringing large teams to increase their possibilities of getting team honors.

A great Negro delegation representing various colleges and universities. Some of the boys who were here last year and who will return again are: Swisher, Kansas State Teachers, DeJernett, Indiana Central, Walton, Michigan State Normal, Mullins, Western State, and a number of others.

All Indianapolis will witness the events this year, especially to see the world's greatest sprinter, Ralph Metcalfe, defend his title.

Savoy Sharpshooter

HAL MANN, GOAL

"Y" Boxers To Vie for City Titles

Local amateur pugilists will swap blows at the Y.M.C.A. again Tuesday, April 2nd, when the "Y" A. A. U. boxing club stages the final eliminations for the city championships among its members.

Everyone who enjoyed the first show remembered the sixty thrilling rounds that the youngsters gave them, and no doubt will be ready to see who will receive the championship belts when the last bout will have been finished.

The bouts will be called at 8:00 p.m. by the officials. Everyone remembers how efficiently Kid Edwards, Lee Bess, J. W. Hall, Roy Radcliffe, Geo. Smith, Smitty Ballenger, Jack Hannibal, and others handled the last tournament. All of these men have had years of experience in the ring and the finals should bring out the best in each participant.

The boxing class numbers about forty men and boys who have been under the supervision and training of Kid Edwards, Lee Bess, and J. Wallace Hall.

New Semi-Pro League Organized

Jack Hannibal was elected president of the All Star League at Smith-Hassler-Sturm Co., last Tuesday night when definite organizational steps were completed. Other officers are B. L. Wornick, vice president, and Tiny Baldwin, secretary-treasurer. The following teams are entered in the league: Sanitary Commission Left Wings, Crescent All Stars, Citizens Gas Co., West Indianapolis Cubs, Morocco Giants, Baby Lincolns, Indianapolis Recorders, and Eastern All Stars. The league will meet every Tuesday at Smith-Hassler-Sturm Co. Schedules and other league business will be discussed at 7:30 p. m.

JACK MANN WILL LEAD SAVOY BIG FIVE HERE SUN.

Chicago Pros in Return Tilt at Armory With Kautsky A.C.

Big Jack Mann will again lead his teammates against the Kautsky A. C. Sunday afternoon in the Armory when the Savoy Big Five, Chicago's professional team, plays a return game.

One of the most colorful figures in the Chicago lineup is Ford, "stocky little pivot ace. He put on a remarkable show for the hundreds of fans who saw the Kautsky's lose 35-29 in the previous tilt.

The locals claimed that the illness of Parmenter was responsible for their loss, then the Savoy's were without the services of their star forward Redmills. Now both teams will have their full strength in the games except that the Kautsky A. C. has signed Eddy, who recently completed his collegiate career at Purdue to bolster the local quintet.

Still another figure will appear in the Chicago lineup, Hal Mayer, ex-N.Y. Collegian star, whose stellar guarding kept the A. C.'s shooting from far out on the floor. Sluggo, ex-Rens' player, is in doubt the greatest individual on the Savoy's, and will give the locals plenty trouble.

With Stevens on the Savoy's will give the Kautsky A. C. plenty to worry about, for it was his steady hitting that baffled the defense that was set for him.

Now fans if you don't believe that Jack Mann can't outjump the great "Stretch" Murphy, come on and see for yourself. He handled himself in a remarkable way to have as little professional experience as he has had. His ball handling has improved 100 per cent since last year when he played here on the Kappa Alpha Psi team.

This second meeting of the two greatest teams in the middle-west will no doubt be the best basketball game as both teams are equally matched even though the Savoy's enjoy a victory over the All Purdue American basketball team.

GOLF CLUB ACTIVITY

The Douglass Golf club entertained at Mrs. Bradley's last Thursday with a social. As soon as the weather breaks local members will begin their preparation for the entertainment of the first Mid-western tourney.

SHOOTING THE WORKS

(By LEE A. JOHNSON)

THE POT AND THE KETTLE

A number of my readers have openly dared me to discuss the annual fraternity basketball game—especially this year since one of the two teams may or may not play a professional athlete. Then this fan wonders why local talent can't be used.

Well the fact is that both organizations started the series two years ago by importing the greater part of their respective teams. Each "Frat" wants to win the game at any cost, we think. Too, the fans like to see the great college stars in action and are not interested in the ramifications around the getting together of the teams.

It so happens, my dear fans, that one of the "Frats" has no team locally, and that this body was given permission by the other to go beyond local boundaries to make the annual game possible. Then it seems as though the other "Frat" was a bit leary of its chances and pulled a fast one by bringing in a number of stars from a nearby Negro college, and won. The following year the other "Frat" went to the same school and brought in enough players to win and the standings are one all. We are not interested in the importing of foreign players, nor are we interested in who wins or loses. Both "Frats" are guilty of using other than local talent, and we don't care to censure either body.

The public wants to see the best for their money; whatever it takes to get them the best, we advise that that thing be done. If both teams use pro stars, so much the better—we do know that the game will be plenty hot and that's all we want—so fans and "Greeks" take your troubles down the road, it's just a clear case of the Pot calling the Skillet black.

WHAT! NO PRO BASEBALL?
Baseball fans are still wondering if some good Samaritan will come along and take them out of the great dilemma that has kept them scratching their heads long hours at night wondering if we will have a local entry in a professional league this year. This fact hardly seems likely. The National league has organized and drawn its schedule; the Southern League is still in an embryonic stage; to date we have no word pertaining to the placing of a team out of this city in any Pro league. Indianapolis is probably out of the running for 1934 unless a last minute arrangement brings us a team.

That's what they call an all around athlete up there.

Hurd plans to enter Michigan State when he graduates from Central; he is a sophomore now, and according to Dr. Bernard Streets, he will be one of the leading athletes in the state by his senior year.

RABB BROTHERS REMODEL STORE

New features and an increased floor space at Rabb Brothers, custom tailors at 5 N. Pennsylvania St., adds much to the superior service that this popular store offers to the many customers it enjoys.

In the remodeling program a bigger and better window display was added, new lighting system, the walls were stippled in brown with a lighter ceiling, new mirrors, and larger work shop on the second floor.

Lawrence P. Fessler came here August, 1933, as the new manager and his popularity has won for him many new customers among Negroes. In a statement to The Recorder, he acknowledged that he was getting a large share of Negro business in this city, and found his customers highly pleased with his service. Prices are reduced to meet the great demand, and at Rabb's we recommend that our thousands of readers to take advantage of getting tailor-made clothes.

KROGER PRIZE WINNER PRAISES THE RECORDER

Cash prizes for the highest percentage of increase in sales and profits made by any Kroger grocery store for the 3 months' period ending last December have been awarded Al Teaford, manager of the company's store at 625 Indiana (Walker building), and W. L. Williams, manager of the district in which the winning store is located. Kroger officials have announced.

Both the store and the district manager are happy over their achievement and were generous in their praise of The Recorder as an invaluable business building asset. The advertising columns of The Recorder, they say, have increased the business of the store from a non-profitable status to one enjoying a healthy volume. If the present rate of increase is maintained, officials say the store will soon rank among the company's best. Much credit is being given the colored customers who are showing an increasing appreciation for the fair-play attitude of the Kroger company in giving the utmost employment to colored people whenever and wherever possible.
